

*Presentation of Scholarship
In Honor of Sal Panzeca
By Members of the American Italian Federation of the Southeast
And the New Orleans Opera Association,
At Performance of
Bernstein's Candide,
Loyola University, New Orleans,
To Kameron Leopeore, Student,
January 20, 2013*

Former Dean of College of Arts and Sciences, Dr. Maria Falco, President of the American-Italian Federation of the Southeast, Victor Musso, Dean of the College of Music and Fine Arts, Don Boomgaarden, Student Kameron Leopeore, Music Director, Carol Rausch, and Artistic Director of the New Orleans Opera, Robert Lyall.

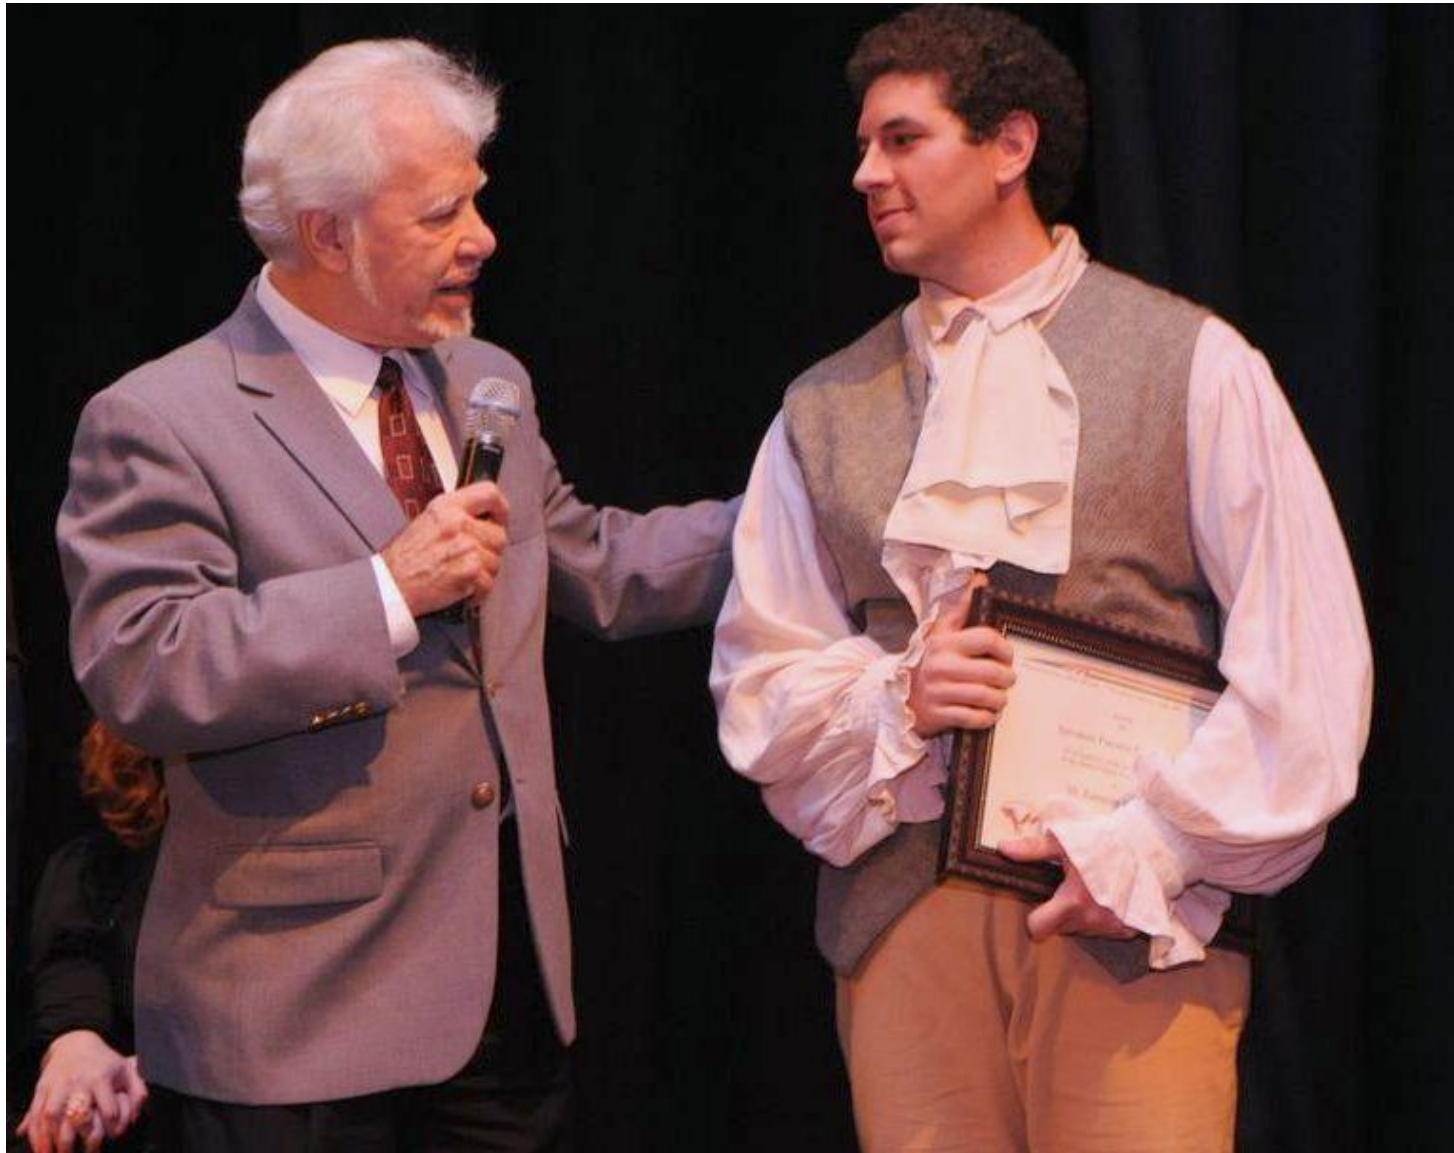

Victor Musso, Gasper Schiro, Graduate of Loyola, Don Boomgaarden, and Maria Falco

Robert Lyall remembers Sal Panzeca as Boomgaarden, Falco, Musso, Joe Piccione, Treasurer of the Federation, and Rausch look on.

Musso holds the Scholarship Plaque as Lyall prepares to present it to Leopeore, while all others look on.

Lyall makes the presentation to Leopeore
Dressed as Candide in the Opera

Robin Panzeca, widow of Sal Panzeca, stands to be Recognized.

Two Deans Greet Each Other.

Everyone says “Amen.”